BERLIN – WONDERFULLY DIVERSE

This multicultural capital city with its 3.6 million residents stands out not only as the political center of Germany, but also as a world-renowned hub of culture, fashion, clubbing, and creativity. Our institute is centrally located in a renovated and listed factory building in the district of Berlin-Mitte, which perfectly reflects the unique charme of the city.

DÜSSELDORF – AN INTERNATIONAL HUB

International rankings confirm it again and again: Düsseldorf, with its approximately 642,000 residents, is one of the metropolises which provides the highest quality of life worldwide. Our students love Düsseldorf for its many opportunities for leisure, cultural discovery, and educational enrichment, as well as its proximity to other major cities. Our training center is located in the central and hip neighborhood of Pempelfort. The Altstadt (old town) is just as easy to reach as the Düsseldorf University of Applied Sciences.
